

Shared Results International

Our Vision

We are a premier resource for creative solutions that transform businesses and organizations. This transformation is characterized by the presence of a unified, entrepreneurial spirit that sustains focused effort, flexibility and the willingness to seize new opportunities.

Our Mission

We help customers achieve faster growth and higher productivity by creating a unified entrepreneurial spirit. We research, develop and implement dynamic information processes and strategies that will defeat organizational indifference. Our company is centered upon the principles of integrity, unity, service and the productive exchange of ideas.

Clients and Services

Shared Results International facilitates executive retreats and presents workshops for corporations, non-profits and government institutions alike with such notable clients as Brooklyn Public Library, Department of Labor, New York Philharmonic, Kodak, Xerox and the YWCA

Background

Founded in 1995, Shared Results works with visionary leaders who are open to transformational change by tapping into the talent of the workforce.

Our customers tell us that our approach is unique; that we invest ourselves personally in their success. We use assessment tools, planning and training to accomplish our customer's goals and have coined the term SharedKnowledge™ to describe our process.

We are certified in New York State as a women-owned business.
